President Trump

Today's ceremony however has very special meaning.

Because.

"Today we are not merely transferring power from one administration to another or from one party to another," "We are transferring power from Washington, D.C. and giving it back to you, the people."

President Trump said these words with the military standing behind him

And before he was done speaking the military turned and walked away

They were carrying the Military Power away from the Government and giving it back to the People Where It Belongs

Under the Insurrection act the military has three commands to follow

The Commander in Chief President Trump

The Commands in the United States constitution

And the commands giving By We the People

And the Military Law of War Manual has the Rules.

Message for the American people

And greet you new state Constitution

This war waged against We the People has a new starting Point

April 2022 President Trump did what Congress Order him to do

Congress had instead authorized the President to call out the militia in the case of insurrection against a state's government.

That the President must, of necessity, decide which the government is, and which party is unlawfully arrayed against it, before he can perform the duty imposed upon him by the act of Congress

And this how it all began

One of these People in this Country Dared To Take President Trumps Words to Heart And Risked Everything He Has and went even further than what the Founding Fathers Did long Ago, By risking his own Life with these Warring states of today And their people.

The Power must go back to the People First in each and every state and they must create a new form of Government control

Did you know your new State Government is already enacted for you?

By President Donald J Trump
